

Consonant blends: ll ck th sh ch ss ng

Teacher's notes:

Students sound the words using the sounds they already know.
Sentences can be used for reading or dictation.

Set 6 – 'll'

bell	fell	hell	sell
tell	well	smell
bill	fill	hill	sill
till	will	doll
dull	hull	gull

The man went up the hill.

Bill will fill the bag.

Jill will sell the hen.

I got a doll and a pram from Mum.

The bell is still on the cat.

Bill will mend his tent.

Set 7 – 'ck'

duck	back	Jack	Sack
deck	neck	pick	sick
rock	lock	buck	Tuck
tick	lick	quick	pack

Jack and Jill went up the hill.

He has a back pack.

We will pick the best pup.

A duck will not peck.

The man has a bad back.

I had a bug on me. It bit me.

We will jump and run and hop.

Set 8 – 'th'

this	that	than	then
them	with	those	these
thick	thin	thank	thing
three	tooth	think	broth

Look at this wet rock.

I can see Meg with them.

This is the best tent.

I like this and I like that.

He went with them.

This is thin and this is thick.

I like this but not that.

Set 9 – 'sh'

ship	shop	shut	ship
shot	shed	dish	dash
fish	rush	crush	brush
wish	flash	cash	clash

That ship got stuck on the rocks.

Cats and dogs must go in the back.

This fish fell in the dust.

She can jump just as well as I can.

I wish I had six big bits of ham.

She will crack the nuts.

We like to go to the pet shop.

Here is the fish and chip shop.

Set 10 -'ch'

check	chip	chick	chop
much	such	chin	chat

She likes fish and chips. So do I.

We had such fun.

I do not like this much.

I can not have a chat with a chick.

"Let's mend the tent," said Dad.

"This land has sand," said Jon.

"Mum sent me here," said Sam.

"I cannot see the wind," said Jack.

"I fell and cut my chin," said Bill.

"I will chop with the axe," said Dad.

Set 12 – Question marks

Are the frogs and ducks here?

Yes.

Can she swim up to here? No.

Is the wet mud soft? Yes.

Do pigs skip? No.

had some bricks.

Set 13 – 'ss'

mess	dress	miss	press
fuss	miss	hiss	stress

Tim left a big mess.

Mum likes this dress best.

Can you cross with me?

I will miss you if you go.

Set 14 – 'ng'

King	sing	ring	bring
Song	long	wrong
Sung	lung	rung

We will go to play if the bell rings.

It is fun to sing a long song.

We can see the wing of the jet.

Set 15 – adding ing

jumping	going	limping	flying
crying	doing	dressing	missing

The frog is jumping.

The ship is sinking.

We are going to see Gran.

The dog is limping.

The flag is flying.

Mum is crying.