

Commas and Quotation marks

Grammar Year 6

Commas go after the dialogue inside quotation marks.

Commas go before quotation marks when introducing dialogue.

Add punctuation to the sentence as needed

“Tomorrow is my birthday,” Peter said excitedly.

We will have to celebrate Tina replied with all of our friends.

Great idea! You can all come to my place after school Peter suggested.

That will be great Tina said.

I will start calling our friends Peter said.

I will bring some party food Tina offered.

She then added I can also call the bakery to order a delicious cake.

This is going to be amazing Peter said to be able to share my birthday with all of my friends
