

this is your one chance at life.

life is to be lived.

There is no practice run

- The year is ticking away
- Some of it has irretrievably gone.....

You

- Have an opportunity here, right now
- Its God ordained
- God engineered

If you think you can

- Or think you can't

- You're right

You have an opportunity

you

get to build the world about you that you live in the first time

usually sucks.

... so does the second.

keep going.

fail

- fail again
- get uncomfortable
- fail beautifully
- but get up and keep trying criticism....ridicule...

every complaint is an opportunity.

Hard is not bad

nobody cares what you didn't do

If u quit

U give up on

U

communicate

- hope
- optimism
- enthusiasm
- fake it till you can make it be stunning.

be amazing.

be exceptional.

Do you even know what you are capable of?

stop thinking.

start doing.

There is no such thing as perfect circumstance to signal your start.

Stop waiting for your ship
to come in.

no excuses, no quitting, no turning back

With God all things are possible Mt 19:26
