

Teaching goals

To model a professional Christian lifestyle in all situations.

To place God at the centre of every lesson.

To invite the Holy Spirit to be a guide in all teaching.

To set high expectations knowing that students will rise to the level expected of them.

To set high personal standards and to be consistent in abiding by them

To be visible about the school and vigilant.

To present students with clear boundaries, to reward good behaviour, and seek God on how to deal with inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour.

To create a bright, clean, creative and stimulating learning environment.

To engage students in the use of stimulating and creative resources, thereby developing creative thinking skills.

To be sensitive to the needs and feelings of the students.

To be friendly, fair, compassionate, yet firm.
