

Applying for a teaching position in a school that uses Beacon Media curriculum.

Questions to be addressed:

1. What is your personal Christian testimony?
2. What are your official qualifications: where and when you completed you teacher training, under which accrediting body; length of the course; what was the final qualification?
3. What is your past teaching experience: how long teaching various year levels – kindergarten; lower, middle, upper Primary; Secondary.
4. What type of curriculum have you used previously, e.g. ACE and/or Government curriculum
5. What was the size of classes you have taught in terms of student numbers?
6. Having viewed the Beacon Media curriculum online, what is your understanding of God-centred curriculum?
7. What would be your approach to the teaching of:
a) Phonics            b ) Reading                    c) Maths
8. How would you get the students involved in active learning?
9. How would you deal with a class that became unruly?
10. What is your belief about creation? (Do you believe in Creation in 6 days or do you believe that the earth is millions of years old?)
11. Do you have any specific skills in the areas of art, music or PE that you could contribute?
12. Would you be prepared to undertake an online training course through the Beacon media website?
13. Would you be prepared to accept less than Government teachers' wages?
14. What is most important to you as a teacher?