

Environments can change

People can change the environments.

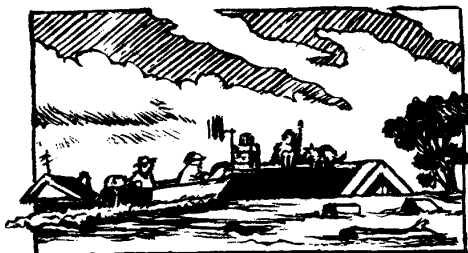

Draw these pictures and explain what is happening in each.

How is the environment changed?

What effects does it have on plants and animals?

Nature can change environments.

Draw these pictures. Under each explain how plant growth, flood and fire can change environments.

How might plants and animals be affected?