When you kn _ _ it's wrong, don't d _ it!

Read Proverbs 16:23

A wise man's heart guides his m _ _ _ _ .

Now more about food...

Too many sugary foods will rot your teeth.

Too much food colouring will make you sick,

BUT...

Food from the garden, like fruits and vegetables, will keep you strong and healthy.

On the next two pages, there are some recipes for foods that will help you to remember the fruit of the Spirit.

Read the recipes and draw a picture for each one. Try them at home with your family. Each letter stands for a fruit of the Spirit.

Now go to page 20 and enter the fruit "SELF-CONTROL" on the tree.

RECIPES

Lemon Jelly Pie

(love, joy, peace)

Here's what you need:

A pie crust
A small saucepan
A whisk
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 cup cold water
1 tablespoon honey
1 heaped teaspoon cornflour
1 egg
coconut

Method:

Put all ingredients in the saucepan. Heat on the stove while whisking constantly. Bring to boil. Pour the mixture into the pie crust. Sprinkle coconut on top when set.

Draw a picture of the Lemon Jelly Pie.

Peanut Gobble Kisses

(patience, goodness, kindness)

Here's what you need:

1 and a half cups of plain flour
half a teaspoon of baking powder
3 tablespoons of olive oil
1 tablespoon of peanut butter
2 tablespoons of honey

Method:

Mix everything together in a big bowl. Then get your hands into the mixture and squeeze it all around. Add a little bit of water if the mixture is too dry. Now put the mixture in the fridge for a little while. Roll out the mixture and make little circles using a cookie cutter.

Draw a picture of the Peanut Gobble Kisses.

Fruity Good Smoothie

(faithfulness, gentleness, self-control)

Here's what you need:

2 cups milk
1 piece of fruit, or some tinned fruit

Method:

Place fruit and milk together in blender and blend.

Draw a picture of the Fruity Good Smoothie.

The Special Fruit Tree

Each time you learn about a new Fruit of the Spirit, write its name in a circle and colour it.

You will find the names of all the fruits of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22-23.
