How To Forgive

CH.18

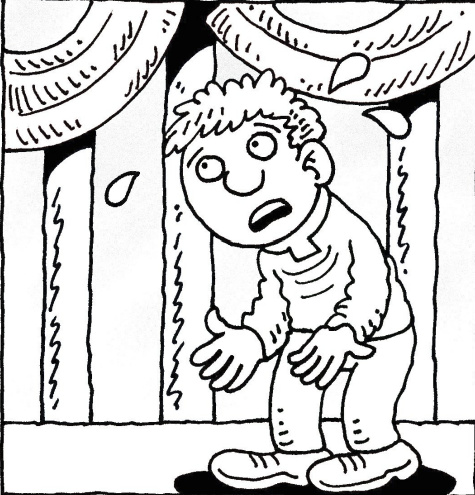

Jesus told a story about a king.

The first panel of the comic strip. It shows a king with a beard and a crown sitting on a throne. The text above the illustration says '20' in the top left, 'How To Forgive' in the top center, and 'CH.18' in the top right. Below the illustration, the text reads 'Jesus told a story about a king.'

The king called to him people who owed him money.

The second panel of the comic strip. The king is sitting on his throne, looking towards three people standing in front of him. The text below the illustration reads 'The king called to him people who owed him money.'

One man came who owed the king A LOT!

The third panel of the comic strip. A man with a worried expression and sweat drops on his forehead is standing in a doorway. The text below the illustration reads 'One man came who owed the king A LOT!'

The man was VERY sorry. The king forgave him.

The fourth panel of the comic strip. The same man is now kneeling on the floor, smiling broadly. The text below the illustration reads 'The man was VERY sorry. The king forgave him.'

Story 20: How to forgive

The man went to a friend who owed HIM some money.

"I cannot pay!" cried the man's friend.

Off to prison!" said the man. He WOULD NOT forgive his friend.

Jesus said we must NEVER be like that. We must ALWAYS forgive.
