

Circle of Viewpoints (2)

1. What is your perception of this photo from the vantage point of this year?
2. How would people have perceived this photo one hundred years ago?
3. Who would be affected by it?
4. Who is involved?
5. Who might care about its contents? Who would be interested in this photo?

6. What thoughts and feelings would you experience if you were the tattooed man/ a policeman/ a bouncer/ his grandmother/ his young daughter/ the soft drink salesman/the woman standing behind him/ a violinist with the city orchestra/ a taxi driver/ his mate?
7. Think of some questions you would want to put to the tattooed man.
8. If you were Jesus and standing by him in the crowd, what might you say and do?
9. Looking back from our present times, what would be the position of most Christians today on this incident and the poster that resulted from the uprising?
10. Tony Campolo a renowned Christian author has written a book: The Kingdom of God Is a Party, (Word Publishing). What would he want to share with this man?
11. What questions would you want to put to Tony Campolo?
www.tonycampolo.org/